9. Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exemptions) Order 1975

This post is covered by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 because it is a post which involves working directly with children or young people. You are therefore required to declare whether you have any criminal convictions (or cautions or bind-overs) including those which are "spent". The amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 (2013) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are 'protected' and are not subject to disclosure to employers, and cannot be taken into account. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found on the Disclosure and Barring Service website :

<https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/dbs-filtering-guidance>

Please complete the following questions, taking into account the DBS filtering guidance.

If Yes, please give details including dates, on a separate sheet, place the sheet in a sealed envelope marked for the attention of the Chair of the shortlisting panel and enclose it with this form.

PLEASE NOTE;

- If your application is successful, prior to taking up your post, you will be required to undergo a Formal Disclosure process through the Disclosure and Barring Service (previously CRB). This will require you to complete a separate DBS application form and to provide a range of more than one piece of documentary evidence of your identity.
- Although a criminal record involving offences against children is likely to debar you from appointment of this type of post, the existence of other criminal convictions will not necessarily be a bar to employment.
- Any criminal record information arising out of the disclosure process will be discussed with you before any final decision is made about your employment.
- It is a criminal offence to apply for or accept a position (paid or unpaid) working with children if you are excluded from such work by virtue of a court order or exclusion by the DBS.
- Copies of the County Council's policy on the employment of ex-offenders, the DBS Code of Practice and the school's policy on criminal records checks are available on request.
- With effect from 17th June 2013 criminal records certificates will only be issued directly to the applicant. The Local Authority/your employer will request that you show them your certificate and will record the Disclosure number and issue date and retain this on your personnel record and on its computerised personnel record system in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. The Local Authority abides by the DBS Code of Practice and Keeping Children Safe in Education (DfE, 2014) which state that a copy of the DBS Disclosure Certificate may only be retained with the permission of the applicant and shall not be retained for longer than 6 months, in order to comply with the requirements of the Data Protection Act. By signing this application form you give your consent to this.

In signing this form I give my authority for use of my personal data for these purposes.

I hereby confirm that the information I have given above is true.

Where applicable, I will be subject to the regulations on political restrictions as defined in Local Government and Housing Act 1989.
